

MONEY STEPS

www.MoneyStepsProject.org

Free Reentry Financial Education Program

Money Steps is:

- A comprehensive financial education video class series
- Designed to empower people who have experienced incarceration, enabling them to put their best foot forward during their reentry process and beyond
- Informative, supportive, and easy to follow course that helps people learn the tools and skills needed to take control of their financial situation

Video Chapters

- Money Mindsets and Traps
- Budgeting
- Banking
- Smart Borrowing
- Credit Reports and Scores
- Dealing With Debt
- Health Insurance
- Taxes
- Scams
- Overcoming Barriers to Reentry
- Financial Planning

For more information, please email info@centsprogram.org

The project was funded by the Bench and Bar Fund of the Western District of Washington. It was created by CENTS, with input from Western District of Washington judges, court staff, U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services, attorneys and financial professionals, and formerly incarcerated persons.